

Cambridge Council for Voluntary Service with the National Association of Voluntary and Community Action is pleased to offer a one day workshop -

Empowering the Voluntary Sector to challenge unjust public body and funding decisions

Monday 29th September 09.30am – 4.30pm
Centre at St Pauls, Hills Road, Cambridge CB2 1JP

If a public body says it is going to act in a certain way it is likely to be unlawful for it not to do so. This is one of the basic principles of public law. Examples could be failure to:

- hold promised consultations
- use a set process for making decisions
- deliver on promises that would benefit your organisation

This workshop will help groups to

- Develop an understanding of the principles of public law
- Identify when a public body has acted unlawfully
- Understand the solutions available

This workshop is free to voluntary and community groups.

A minimum of 10 participants is required.

Any who book but fail to attend will be charged fees of £35.

Closing date for bookings Monday 22 September. Places allocated in order of application. To book please contact Frances on 01223 464696 - enquiries@cambridgecvs.org.uk or Ruth on 01223 716873 - ruth@cambridgecvs.org.uk
