

for teaching and support staff working with 14 – 16 Pre- NEET vulnerable young people

Friday 20th November 2009

10.00am - 2.00pm

Lunch provided

St Andrews House, St Andrews Street, Norwich NR2 4TP

The purpose of the day is to inform you of a programme starting on 5 January 2010 to re-engage 14 – 16 young people under YOT supervision

The ReSTART programme offers young people the opportunity to explore different curriculum areas. However to re-engage young people it is important to address behavioural issues.

The workshop is to introduce you to a Steven Covey programme '7 Habits for Effective Young People' which is based on the highly successful '7 Habits for Effective Managers'

Agenda

Martin Taylor from Steven Covey Associates will outline the programme

Martin will discuss the timeless principles of The 7 Habits for Highly Effective People and how to apply them to teens and the tough issues and life-changing decisions they face. Being a teenager is both wonderful and challenging. This ultimate teenage success programme provides a step-by-step guide to help teens improve their self-image, build friendships, resist peer pressure, achieve goals, get along with parents, and more.

City College Streets Ahead team deliver example session

Anne Aves, Streets Ahead Project Manager and Jay Campbell, Promoting Achievement and Learning mentor at City College will deliver an example session, illustrating how the 7 Habits for Effective Young people can be integrated into delivery and the benefit it can have on the young people involved and the organisations delivering it.

Group work to plan a session

Delegates will work in groups to apply the principles of the 7 Habits for Effective Young People and design a session based on collective experience and specific examples from within their own organisations.
