

Social Enterprise Training Courses

This project is supported by Investing in Communities

There are currently more than 55,000 social enterprises in the UK with a combined turnover of £27bn. The next one could be yours! Social Enterprises are proper businesses, trading to earn their living and much loved by politicians and government agencies.

The Guild are offering a range of accredited and non-accredited practical one-day to five-day courses throughout Norfolk for anyone thinking about starting a social enterprise business or who just wants to know more. Courses are free to Norfolk based participants and also open to people outside Norfolk at a charge.
